IIM Jammu hosts holistic orientation program for new batches

By Daily Excelsior July 17, 2024

Excelsior Correspondent

JAMMU, July 16: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu commenced its five-day orientation program at its advanced campus in Jagti, welcoming a diverse cohort of students.

The event marked the beginning for the 5th Batch of Ph.D. (2024-28), the 3rd Batch of Ph.D. (WP) (2024-28), the 9th Batch of MBA (2024-26), the 3rd Batch of MBA (HA&HM) (2024-26), and the 4th Batch of EMBA (2024-26).

The second day of the orientation began with a rejuvenating yoga session led by Yoga Guru Sahil Mehra under the theme "Maximize Happiness and Mindfulness," setting a positive tone for the academic journey ahead.

Shailesh Lohiya, Librarian at IIM Jammu, delivered an insightful session on the "Knowledge Management Center," familiarizing students with the advanced library resources and e-learning tools available at 'Nalanda'.

Asif Khan and Avinash, Assistant System Managers, conducted a session on "ERP & IT Support System", followed by engaging outbound activities organized by the Office of Student Affairs to foster team building among the students.

The morning sessions culminated in a thoughtful talk by Deepali Jetley, Chief People Officer at Marengo Asia Hospitals, on "Unlocking Your Potential in the Corporate World: Continuous Learning and Curiosity."

Sourav Dasgupta, Senior VP and Head of IT at Allcargo Logistics Ltd., provided valuable insights in his session "RoI: Academics to Corporate," emphasizing the importance of academic investment for future corporate success.

The highlight of the day was an address by Padma Vibhushan Dr Karan Singh, Former Union

Cabinet Minister and Ambassador of India to the USA, who spoke on “The Many Dimensions of Management,” blending traditional wisdom with modern challenges and emphasizing sustainability and mental well-being.

Sessions on “Finance & Accounts Services” by Rajat Jain and “Upkeep of Infrastructure and Facilities” by Shyam Dhar Tiwari provided practical insights into campus operations. Dr Raj Kumar V, Dr Gaana J, and Dr Rambabu concluded the day with a focus on “International Accreditation & Ranking.”

The day ended with cultural performances by the Jammu & Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture, and Languages, celebrating regional diversity and fostering holistic development.

- Royal Majesty Padma Vibhushan Maharaja Dr. Karan Singh Ji's address, corporate interactions, and academic insights, Yoga Sessions define second day of IIM Jammu Orientation

JAMMU: Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Jammu commenced the second day of its five-day holistic Orientation Program for the incoming batches at its state-of-the-art campus in Jagti. The event welcomed the 5th Batch of Ph.D. (2024-28), the 3rd Batch of Ph.D. (WP) (2024-28), the 9th Batch of MBA (2024-26), the 3rd Batch of MBA (HA&HM) (2024-26), and the 4th Batch of EMBA (2024-26).

The second day of the orientation program began with a yoga session led by Yoga Guru Shri Sahil Mehra, coordinated by Team Anandam. The session, themed "Maximize Happiness and Mindfulness," aimed to set a positive tone for the new academic journey, emphasizing the well-being and mindfulness of the students.

An insightful session on "Knowledge Management Center" was delivered by Shri Shailesh Lohiya, Librarian, IIM Jammu. The session equipped the students with valuable insights on maximizing their use of the state-of-the-art library, 'Nalanda.' It familiarized the students with the technology-enabled checkout system, e-resources and provided a roadmap to augment their academic journey with the institute's vast knowledge repository.

Shri Asif Khan and Shri Avinash, Assistant System Manager, IIM Jammu spearheaded a session on 'ERP & IT Support System'. The morning sessions continued by a series of outbound activities coordinated by the Office of the Student Affairs to facilitate team building among the students. This was followed by lunch,

The afternoon session featured an engaging talk on "Unlocking Your Potential in the Corporate World: Continuous Learning and Curiosity" by Ms. Deepali Jetley, Chief People Officer, Marengo Asia Hospitals. This session was coordinated by Dr. Ateeque Shaikh, Chairperson and Associate Professor, IIM Jammu, and Dr. Prateek Maheshwari, Assistant Professor, IIM Jammu.

Following this, Mr. Sourav Dasgupta, Sr. VP and Head of IT, Allcargo Logistics Ltd., delivered a session titled "RoI: Academics to Corporate." This session provided students with invaluable insights into the importance of investing in their academic curriculum to enhance their corporate journeys. The session was coordinated by Kapil Manohar Gumte, Assistant Professor, IIM Jammu, and Dr. Bijoy Rakshit, Assistant Professor, IIM Jammu.

One of the unique highlights of the Orientation Program was the address and online interaction with Royal Majesty Padma Vibhushan Maharaja Dr. Karan Singh, Former Union Cabinet Minister of Health, Civil Aviation, and Education, Government of India, and Ambassador of India to the USA. He was welcomed by Prof. B.S. Sahay, Director, IIM Jammu. His session, titled "The Many Dimensions of Management," was coordinated by Professor Jabir Ali, Dean Academics, IIM Jammu.

Royal Majesty Padma Vibhushan Maharaja Dr. Karan Singh lauded IIM Jammu as one of the finest institutes in the country, noting its remarkable growth since its inception. He emphasized the vital role of protecting natural resources to ensure long-term sustainability and resilience, crucial for future generations. He discussed the adverse impacts of deforestation, explaining how it disrupts ecosystems and contributes to climate change, which in turn affects economic stability.

Stressing the importance of these practices, he explained how they foster physical health and mental clarity, essential for effective management. He underscored the need for maintaining a positive mindset, warning against anger and negativity. He emphasized the evolving role of artificial intelligence in modern management and its potential to drive significant advancements. He highlighted the cooperative effort needed to build a new India, addressing crucial issues such as corruption, colonialism, and casteism for a better future. The session provided the students with a comprehensive understanding of various dimensions of management, blending traditional wisdom with modern challenges and opportunities.

An insightful session on "Finance & Accounts Services" was delivered by Shri Rajat Jain, Financial Advisor & Chief Accounts Officer, IIM Jammu. His session covered the accounting practices followed at IIM Jammu, budget preparation for various activities, and educational loan assistance available at the institute.

This was followed by an informative session on "Upkeep of Infrastructure and Facilities on the Campus" by Er. Shyam Dhar Tiwari, Project Engineer & Estate Officer. He provided a detailed overview into the infrastructure and maintenance along with Campus being Griha Compliant.

Dr. Raj Kumar V., Dr. Gaana J., and Dr. Rambabu delivered the final session of the day, focusing on "International Accreditation & Ranking." This was followed by snacks, providing students an opportunity to network with their peers and faculty in a relaxed setting.

The day ended on a high note with cultural programs performed by the Jammu & Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture, and Languages (JKAACL), coordinated by the Office of Student Affairs. The cultural program immersed the students in the regional cultural diversity, ensuring a holistic development.

IIM Jammu is committed to providing a supportive and enriching environment for its students, and the orientation program is a testament to this commitment. The institute eagerly looks forward to the contributions and achievements of the new batches in the years to come.
